

CURE's Anti-Racist Book Club for Young Families

Join us for CURE's first-ever family event!

Parents and kids ages 3-6 (pre-K to 1st grade) are invited to participate in a fun and engaging 5-week summer book club. Each session will include story time and accompanying activities, all facilitated by community leaders.

You and your little ones will have a fun afternoon together while learning by example how to comfortably and consistently talk about race and racism at home.

Larchmont Public Library

Saturdays June 4, 11, 18, 25 & July 9

3:00 - 4:00pm

CURE will host parent-only discussions before and after the series via Zoom to help parents guide conversations at home.

Event registration and more info available HERE.

Series based on "One Million Talks" campaign & books curated by local bookseller The Humble Bumble in New Rochelle.
